ca. 21 hrs award ceremony

Format:

9 Rounds Swiss system according FIDE rules. Tempo is 90 min/40 moves + 30 min for the rest of the game + 30 sec. bonus each move starting at move 1. The default time is 30 minutes. Unexcused absence may result in exclusion from the tournament. In the event of a tie the running-/cumulative score decides, followed by the Buchholz score. The sum of the points of the 4 best players of the club decides for the club prize. In the event of a tie between two clubs the score of the 5th player of a club is used then the 6th and so on. TWZ is the FIDE-rating or the DWZ (the highest applies). The results will be send to FIDE. One bye can be requested to and including the seventh round. You get ½ point for this. This must be requested before the end of the previous round at the latest. If the field of participants allows it, it's possible to achieve a title norm. The tournament is open to participants from all federal states and for participants from abroad. Participation is also possible if you are not a member of a chess club.

Mobiles:

Mobile phones and/or other electronic means of communication must be switched off and placed next to the board or in a separate bag. Players carrying a mobile phone and/or other electronic means of communication may be assessed a penalty other than loss of the game under FIDE Rules Article 11.3.2.2, but only if they are completely incapacitated.

Please state this when registering. On the 1st day of the tournament, you must report before 15:00 hrs. This is also required for pre registered players. Failure to meet this deadline may mean that you can't play in the first round.

GDPR:

By registering, the participant agrees to the event-related publication of his data (particularly participant lists and results) and photos in media, including on the internet.

Entry fee: If transferred before March 1, 2023 € 80, otherwise € 90. If you pay cash on the spot the entry fee is € 90. In case of too many registrations, the order in which the entry fee is received is decisive for the allocation of places. A GM/IM with no prize will be refunded the entry fee if the tournament is correctly completed. The registration will not take effect until the fee has been credited to the account.

Prize money: - € 2000 / € 1500 / € 1000 / € 500 see also under “Prices SBNRW”
- At least 10 rating groups ranked by TWZ: € 70 / € 30. An additional rating group will be created for every 10 additional participants above 100.
2 youth prizes (born until 2009; born until 2003): € 70 / € 30
- 1st prize: € 400 (4 x € 100 paid to the 4 best players of the best club)
Only players present at the award ceremony are entitled to their prize money.

NRW title: The best placed participant who is eligible to play for a club in the NRW Chess Federation becomes the NRW individual champion, the best placed female participant also becomes the NRW individual champion. The best placed player of the NRW Chess Federation becomes the NRW individual champion.
Die bestplatzierten TeilnehmerInnen qualifizieren sich entsprechend der Turnierordnung des DSB für die Deutschen Meisterschaften.

Prizes SBNRW: € 300/200/100/75/50/25; 1st prize € 150/100.
The payout of the prizes for the best placed NRW players is independent of the other prizes. The exclusion of double prizes does not apply in this case.
It goes to the best players who are authorized to play for a NRW Chess Federation club against proof of fees.
